Superintendent's Message

Education leads the torch that enlightens the world, fires the imagination of man, feeds the flame of genius. Education gives wings to dreams and might to hand and brain. From out of the deep shadows of the past education comes, wearing the scars of struggle and the stripes of toil, but bearing in triumph the wisdom of all ages. Man, because of education, holds dominion over earth, air, and sea; it is for him education leashes the lightning, plumbs the deep, and shackles the ether. Education is the parent of progress, creator of culture, molder of destiny. Philosophy, art and science are tools of education. Education banishes ignorance, discourages vice, disarms anarchy. Education becomes freedom's citadel, the arm of democracy, the joy of age. Fortunate the nations and happy the homes that welcome education. The school is the workshop; here education stirs ambitions, stimulates ideals, forges the keys that open the door to opportunity. Education is a must and an irresistible power. Do not let it get away from you.

Principal's Message

This book, the first of a multitude to come, should be full of many pleasant memories for everyone connected with Carrollton High School.

Wrapped within its covers lies the history of the second year of life for Carrollton High School. Like a child of the same age, Carrollton High School in this, its second year of life, took a few more faltering steps - toward becoming a fully established high school. This book is the culmination of one of those first few faltering steps. Through its pages we can see chronicled the highlights of the history of this second year of life.

On its pages are pictured what makes Carrollton High School a real school - the photographs of your friends and teachers.

Its value is not measured in its money cost to you, but only in what its pages mean to you. It should be of great value to you for it is your memory book of a very memorable year in your life. As the years pass by and you look back on its pages it should become ever more valuable with the fond memories it recalls. Like anything else that is treasured it should be guarded and cherished and kept on your favorite book shelf for years to come.
